

School:.....

Date:

The lesson you just had was about "Young people and risk taking". What did you think of it?

1. What did you think of the internet films? Just cross one box

- Bad
- Good
- Very good

2. What did you think of the internet films? Just cross one box

- Boring
- A bit interesting
- Interesting

3. Which film is the most fitting for "Risky behaviour"? You can cross more boxes

- | | |
|--|---|
| <input type="checkbox"/> Girl getting undressed | <input type="checkbox"/> Skateboard |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Women's pictures | <input type="checkbox"/> Head in the speaker |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Young man being beaten up | <input type="checkbox"/> Pictures of drug addicted people |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Youth beating each other up | <input type="checkbox"/> Car surfing |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Cuts in the arm | <input type="checkbox"/> Fight club for women |
| <input type="checkbox"/> Breaking bones / sport injuries | <input type="checkbox"/> Airbed and fainting |

4. What did you think of the lesson? Just cross one box

- Bad
- Good
- Very good

5. What did you think of the lesson? Just cross one box

- Boring
- Quite interesting
- Interesting

6. What did you like the best about this lesson? You can cross more boxes

- The internet films
- Enrico (the person leading the conversation)
- To hear what everybody thought
- To share my opinion
- To be part of it
- Something else

7. What did you learn from this lesson? (for example that some risks are silly, that you should think before acting, or that some risks are possible and others are not)

.....

.....

.....

.....

8. Which score would you give to this lesson? From 1 (very bad) to 10 (very good)

Thank you for giving your opinion